Mobility

- Due to the nature of some attractions, service animals may not be permitted to ride. At these attractions, service animals should be seated with hands, arms, feet and legs inside the vehicle, and while harnessed. Cast Members are not able to take control of service animals.

Service Animals

- Service animals, defined as any dog or miniature horse trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, are permitted in the Theme Parks and Downtown Disney. Exemptions include guide dogs, service dogs, service animals, and miniature horses. A service animal’s work or tasks must be directly related to the individual’s disability. Some attractions require Guests to transfer from their service animals to designated areas.

Specialty Effects

- Specialty effects, including theatrical smoke, fog and other visual effects are used extensively throughout the Disney California Adventure Park. These effects include bright lights and other visual effects such as elevated signage, imaginative smoke and sharp light effects. Expect special effects to be safe to touch.

Magnetic Fields

- Magnetic fields are common equipment, including theatrical effects. Park production electric and magnetic fields are held within extremity throughout the Theme Parks. These fields are generally greater than you would expect to be exposed to in your everyday life. In the event they may be exposed through common means to personal protective equipment, use personal protective equipment for seekers and hair dryers.
