Forty years ago today, the Walt Disney World® Resort introduced the world to a whole new kind of vacation destination. With the blessing of size, Magic Kingdom® Park captured our imaginations on daring adventures through the jungle, musical revues with Mickey Mouse and journeys deep under the sea. We met an orange bird in a sunshine tree, white-washed a fence with Tom Sawyer and traveled to the moon. Today, the magic continues to create memories as we splash into a briar patch, bounce through the Hundred Acre Wood and soar into outer space.

This was Walt's dream— his final dream. The dedication of Walt's brother, Roy, made sure that Walt's dream became reality and that the Florida Project would inspire the dreams of Guests for generations. We have now enjoyed four decades of Walt's final dream and the dreams continue to grow. Today, the magic of Walt and Roy Disney has touched all of our lives. On behalf of the Cast of the Walt Disney World® Resort, we welcome you to Magic Kingdom® Park on our 40th Anniversary and invite you to share in a dream come true.
