Tips from the Panel

No Magic Kingdom Park ticket? No problem! Guests who purchase tickets to Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party can enter Magic Kingdom Park beginning at 4:00 p.m. - that's a full three hours of fun before the party starts.

An Event Guide for Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party is available in the My Disney Experience mobile app. The Insider Guides for Families with Little Ones and Night Owls offer top tips at your fingertips!

When it comes to food allergies, there are more treats than tricks! As you enter the party, notify a Cast Member of your allergy to receive a complimentary, teal-colored treat bag. At each treat station, you will receive a teal token you can exchange at one of the Allergy Friendly Centers for special allergy-friendly treats.

Don't be afraid to come in costume! Be sure to follow the official costume guidelines on the Walt Disney World Resort website. Keep the weather in mind and choose a costume with layers that can be removed or added for maximum comfort.

Say "Boo!" There are some spooktacular photo ops that are only available during Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party with Magic Shots and Halloween props.
