Tips from the Panel

No Magic Kingdom Park ticket? No problem! Guests who purchase tickets to Mickey's Very Merry Christmas Party can enter Magic Kingdom Park beginning at 4:00 p.m. - that's a full three hours of fun before the party starts.

Take a ride on the Jingle Cruise for a fun twist on this classic attraction. See what the Skipper crew is up to during the holiday season - there are so many festive details, you'll want to ride it again!

Variety is the spice of the season! You'll find different cookie and beverage combinations at each of the holiday treat locations. Allergy-friendly and sugar-free options are also available upon request.

To add an extra bit of holiday cheer to your pictures, be sure to ask your Disney PhotoPass photographers if they have any event-exclusive Magic Shots.

Pick up complimentary cookies and cocoa and head to Frontierland to enjoy the Reindeer Wranglers festive hoedown before Mickey's Once Upon a Christmastime Parade. It's a jolly way to pass the time in one of the best areas for parade viewing.
